

MY BRIEF:

I imagined a costume development for Qi'ra, played by Emilia Clarke in Solo: a Star Wars Story:

from Crimson Dawn lieutenant to Darth Maul disciple.

COSTUME
EXPLORATION

How can we make her attire look closer to the one of a Sith Lord but still keeping her design unique and different from the rest of the hooded guys on the Dark Side?

I believe she would retain her seductress appeal as just another tool on the way to power.

COSTUME EVOLUTION

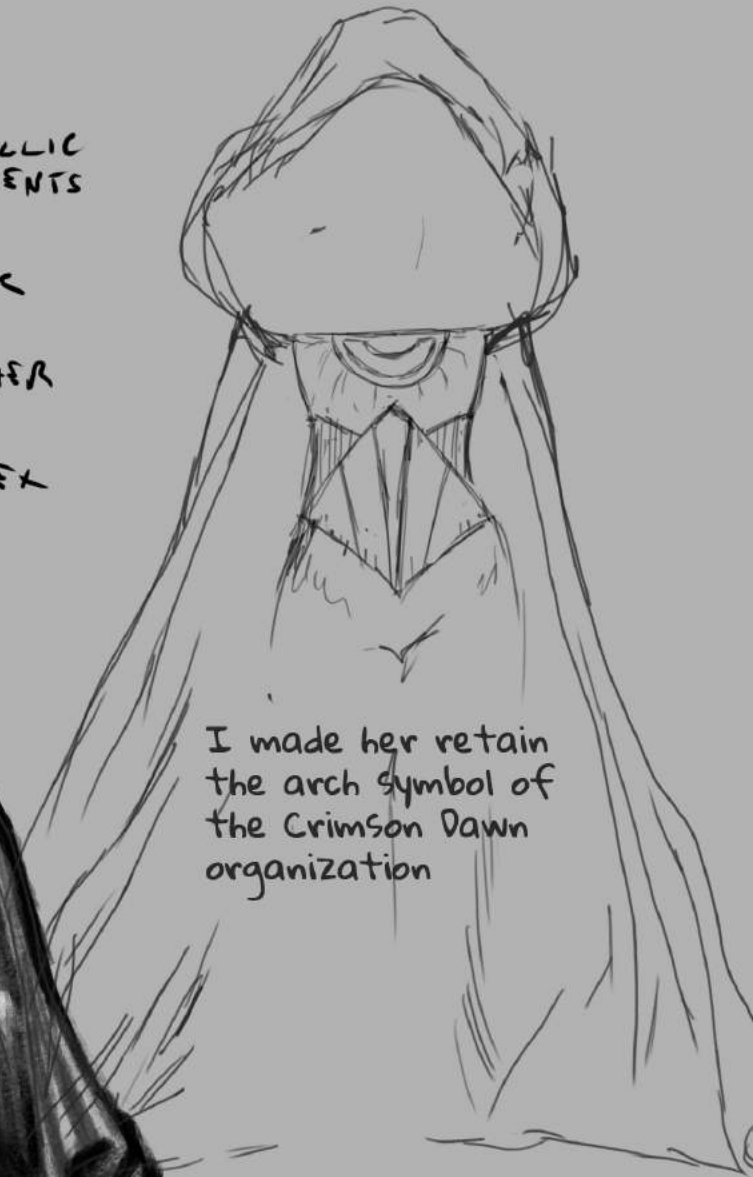

METALLIC ELEMENTS

SILK

LEATHER

LATEX

I made her retain the arch symbol of the Crimson Dawn organization
